

Sermon Supplement from August 31

“God’s Sovereignty In Salvation History” – Romans 11:25-36

WARM UP

- What are some things in life that cause you to stand in awe? Why do they stir that response?

DIG IN

Read VV. 25-32 | Seeing God’s Sovereign Plan for Salvation History

- How do these verses, along with the chart shared in the sermon, help you better understand how God is sovereignly at work in salvation history?
- How does this knowledge and understanding humble you?
- Is it good to have a God we can’t fully comprehend? Why?
- What do you learn about the nature and character of God from these verses?
- How does this shape your pursuit of God?

Read VV. 33-36 | Standing in Awe of God’s Sovereign Glory

- What emotions or feelings do you think Paul is trying to convey in these verses?
- How do these verses highlight the “ultimacy” of God in all things?
- Why is it so important that theology always end in doxology (praise)? What dangers arise if we have one without the other?
- What are some things that can cause us to lose our awe of God. How can we regain that sense of awe?
- How do these verses impact the way we live our everyday lives?

Wrap Up

- What is one way you could practice standing in awe of God this week?
- How does this passage challenge or shape your attitude and actions?
- Is there a verse or phrase from this passage you want to carry with you and reflect on this week?
