

Discussion Questions

Romans 12:2

Spend time discussing the conforming effect the world can have on us.

- Pay attention to the conversations around you. Share popular ways people describe what they believe about God, faith, morality and righteousness.
- What are your actions saying about you? They reveal much about our beliefs. Where are you investing your time, money and talents?
- Our faith calls us to live well in the midst of conflicting choices. How would you measure your progress?

Spend some time discussing the transformation of your minds?

- Identify some elements in this process. How engaged are you in this process? Are you finding victory in counteracting the conforming influence of this world?
- Jesus provides some reference points for the transformation of our minds. What are some things that are crucial if our minds are transformed?
- What does the rest of the book of Romans indicate that transformation looks like?